

Zakariya Hoosain

Zakariya is a born and bred Cape Townian. He has over 20 year of experience. After he qualified as a CA, he launched the governance, risk and compliance service line for Mazars where he became a partner. He joined the treasury in 2012 whereafter he became the head of treasury in the western cape which oversees a budget of R65bn. Together with his team, he drove the successful operation clean audit strategy for the province. He's been an active and passionate member of SAICA public sector since 2007 and is now the public sector national council representative. He's currently pursuing his masters in development policy at UCT while managing the shared services risk function in the Overberg.