

Bonga Nyembe

“Bonga focus on building strong, trusting relationships with key external stakeholders such as regulators, professional bodies and think tanks and works with peers to shape a common agenda and approach to defining the future of Deloitte’s profession. Bonga has been with the firm for 20 years of which 13 has been as a Partner. Over the years he has served multiple OCEO clients of the firm including Lead Client Service Partner (LCSP) for Life Healthcare, Motus, Barloworld Limited and PPC.

He previously served as a member of the Africa Board until his appointment as the BUL of Gauteng Audit.

His roles in various organisations including SAICA, IRBA, ABASA and BMF has resulted in him building strong relationships spanning across a wider spectrum which he will leverage on in his new role.

Bonga is also currently an alternate Deloitte CEO representative at the South African Auditing Profession Trust Initiative (SAAPTI), an organisation created to restore trust in the auditing profession in South Africa.

He is passionate about people development and continues to mentor many professionals within and outside the firm.

Bonga is part of the the Executive Committee.
